The signature salad, named for the year the restaurant was founded in Tampa's Latin district of Ybor City, was inspired by immigrants to the Cigar City: Romano cheese from the Sicilians and the famous garlic dressing used by Cubans to marinate fresh roast pork, plus Florida tomatoes, iceberg lettuce*, julienne of baked ham and Swiss cheese. 18

* (Originally known as "crisphead," iceberg lettuce got its name from the layers of ice covering heads of lettuce being shipped to Tampa via Henry B. Plant's trains. As the trains pulled up, people would yell, "Here come the icebergs!") Today, our iceberg lettuce is sourced from 3rd-generation family-owned Taylor Farms in CA & AZ.

“As a gem forms with the passage of time, the same is true for the Columbia RestaurantSM, the gem of Spanish restaurantsSM.”

In 1905, Casimiro Hernandez, Sr. – our great-grandfather – immigrated to Tampa’s Ybor City from Cuba and opened a small café called the Columbia Café, serving steaming cups of Cuban coffee and bowls of Spanish bean soup, along with strong drink to fellow immigrants in the “Cigar City.” Over time, the Columbia grew to become one of Florida’s finest restaurants.

Every era brought new challenges, and the Columbia met each with expansion. Prohibition saw the addition of a dining room called “La Fonda.” By 1935, Prohibition had been repealed. Cocktails and dancing were all the rage. Our grandfather, Casimiro Hernandez, Jr. added the first air-conditioned dining room in Tampa and named it the “Don Quixote,” featuring a large dance floor.

In the 1950s, our parents Cesar and Adela Gonzmart carried on old traditions and added new elements. Ever the showman, Cesar serenaded and delighted diners with his magical violin, backed by an orchestra in the lavish “Siboney Room.” Our mother, a concert pianist and noted cookbook author, was the heart of the Columbia.

Culinary and cultural acclaim increased over the years as our family added new rooms for banquets and entertainment. The Columbia Restaurant of Ybor City seats more than 1,700 people in 15 dining rooms and encompasses an entire city block.

Today there are seven Columbia Restaurants throughout Florida, each carrying on our family’s delicious traditions. We also own and operate Ulele, Goody GoodyTM, Cha Cha Coconuts, Casa Santo Stefano and Café Con Leche Ybor City.

The heritage that began in 1905 proudly continues into the 21st century with our daughters and sons, the great-great-grandchildren of Casimiro. Just as he did, we take pride in providing the best dining experience for our guests each day with excellent food, Old World service and consistent value at all of our restaurants. History never tasted so good!

Our family history is intertwined with the food we serve. Enjoy our memories scattered throughout this menu.
